

COLORADO

Department of Regulatory Agencies

Division of Professions and Occupations

Independent Learning and Group Learning | Marriage and Family Therapist

This form is to be used by DORA-licensed marriage and family therapists to document independent learning or group learning activities that have been completed in order to meet continuing professional competency requirements. Use one form per activity and retain for your own records. This form and supporting documentation are to be submitted only upon request.

Name:

First

Middle

Last/Suffix

MFT License Number:

Date:

Activity

This form is to document:

Independent Learning

Group Learning (a copy of an attendance log is required for all Group Study activities)

Name of Activity / Resource:

Start Date:

End Date:

Hours:

Summary of completed activity:

What did you learn?

How was this information relevant to your learning goals and the practice of marriage and family therapy?

Visit dpo.colorado.gov/MarriageFamilyTherapy/CPC to view the CPC Program Manual and the Professional Development Activities (PDA) Chart for a list of categories and documentation standards.

Attestation

This form serves as verification that I have completed this activity as described. I understand that falsifying an attestation or other documentation regarding my compliance with continuing professional competency requirements may be grounds for discipline.

Name

Date